Supreme Court Declines Action After Litigant Sparks Chaotic Courtroom Scene

Sheikh Rayees • July 11, 2026

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Supreme Court chose not to initiate any proceedings against a litigant who created a disturbance during a hearing by throwing case papers, using abusive language against the judges, and allegedly directing verbal insults at Chief Justice of India Justice Surya Kant while being escorted out of the courtroom. A Bench comprising Justices K.V. Viswanathan and Alok Aradhe observed that the petitioner, who appeared in person, failed to make any...
