Supreme Court Deems Blacklisting a 'Civil Death' Mandates Justification and Proportionality

Sheikh Rayees • August 8, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a significant ruling, the Supreme Court has invalidated a blacklisting order issued by the Kolkata Municipal Corporation, emphasizing that such actions must be both justified and proportionate. Describing blacklisting as a "drastic remedy," the Court underlined that its application requires careful consideration. A Bench consisting of Justices BR Gavai, Sanjay Karol, and KV Viswanathan remarked that the reasons cited for blacklisting were insufficiently grave to...
