Supreme Court Demands Compensation for Demolished Properties as Patna Authorities Flout Court Orders

Sheikh Rayees • August 14, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a stern rebuke, the Supreme Court has taken Patna Municipal Corporation and District Administration to task for demolishing properties despite a clear status quo order. The Court's intervention follows the destruction of buildings built on what the petitioners claim to be private land, despite a judicial directive to halt any further demolition or construction. The controversy began when the petitioners challenged eviction orders under the Bihar Public Land Encroachment...
