Supreme Court Demands Timely Police Checks for Government Recruits

Six-Month Deadline Imposed

Sheikh Rayees • December 7, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a decisive move, the Supreme Court has directed police authorities across all states to ensure the timely completion of verification processes for candidates joining government services. This mandate requires police verification reports—covering character, nationality, and document authenticity—to be finalized within six months of the candidate's appointment. The bench, led by Justices JK Maheshwari and R Mahadevan, criticized the widespread...
