Supreme Court Dismisses Rape Case, Calls Woman's Conduct "Calculated and Vengeful"

Sheikh Rayees • May 30, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a striking judgment, the Supreme Court has thrown out a rape case filed by a woman against a man who withdrew from their planned marriage, calling her behavior a “bundle of lies” driven by manipulation and revenge rather than genuine grievance. The ruling came from a bench comprising Justices Vikram Nath and Sandeep Mehta, who examined the woman’s communication history and found disturbing patterns—admissions of exploiting men, using threats...
