SUPREME COURT

Supreme Court Eases Sentence in Fatal Negligent Driving Case, Reduces Compensation

Sheikh Rayees • September 6, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Supreme Court has ordered the release of a man convicted of causing the death of a motorcycle pillion rider in a road accident, reducing his sentence to the time already served in custody. The case centered around the appellant's rash and negligent driving of a mini lorry, which led to a collision with a motorcycle, causing the pillion rider to fall and suffer fatal injuries. The appellant had been...
