SUPREME COURT

Supreme Court Emphasizes Restrained Use of Preventive Detention in Law Enforcement Challenges

Iftikhar Hassan Samoon • March 22, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a landmark judgment, the Supreme Court emphasized that the incapacity of state law enforcement to address challenges in maintaining law and order does not justify the use of preventive detention. This decision came as the court overturned a preventive detention order against a person accused of chain snatching under the Telangana preventive detention laws. The court's analysis highlighted several critical guidelines for the imposition of preventive detention...
