Supreme Court Flags Major Issues in NEET-UG 2024

Calls for NTA Overhaul

Sheikh Rayees • August 2, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Supreme Court has delivered a stern critique of the National Testing Agency (NTA) following the NEET-UG 2024 exam, highlighting numerous procedural and security shortcomings. Although the Court's ruling did not warrant the cancellation of the exam, it emphasized serious concerns about the NTA's handling of the process. In its judgment, the Court detailed a series of failures that, while not compromising the exam's integrity on a systemic level, nonetheless...
