Supreme Court Grants AAP Extension to Vacate Rouse Avenue Office

Sheikh Rayees • June 10, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a recent decision, the Supreme Court has given the Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) until August 10, 2024, to vacate their office located on a plot designated for the expansion of Delhi's district judiciary. This extension was granted by the Division Vacation Bench, consisting of Justices Vikram Nath and Sandeep Mehta. Previously, the Court had instructed AAP on April 4, 2024, to vacate the premises by June 15, 2024, to...
