SUPREME COURT

Supreme Court Halts Six-Month Limit on Road Accident Claims, Safeguards Victims' Right to Compensation

Sheikh Rayees • November 8, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a move offering major relief to road accident victims, the Supreme Court has paused the enforcement of the six-month deadline for filing motor accident compensation claims. The Court instructed all High Courts and Motor Accident Claims Tribunals (MACTs) across India not to reject petitions merely because they were filed after the prescribed time limit.
