Supreme Court Hits Back at Lawyer's "Audacious" Plea, Slaps INR5 Lakh Penalty

Sheikh Rayees • April 25, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a no-nonsense takedown, the Supreme Court recently called out what it described as a brazen misuse of judicial process—this time, by one of its own. A practicing advocate who thought it wise to invoke Article 32 of the Constitution to meddle in a family court ruling has been hit with a INR5 lakh cost for wasting the court's time and "spoiling the environment." The petitioner, Sandeep Todi, had approached...
