Supreme Court Limits Bar Council Enrollment Fees to Legal Maximum

Sheikh Rayees • July 30, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a landmark ruling, the Supreme Court has curtailed the power of Bar Councils across India, mandating that they cannot charge more than the statutory amount specified under Section 24 of the Advocates Act for enrollment fees. The decision, stemming from a writ petition against the Union Government and the Bar Councils, highlighted discrepancies in the fees being charged to aspiring advocates. The three-judge bench, led by Chief Justice Dr....
