Supreme Court Locks All Land Disputes Over Bombay HC's New Home Into One High Court Bench

Sheikh Rayees • April 9, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Supreme Court has stepped in to cut through the maze of legal confusion clouding the relocation of the Bombay High Court. In a decisive move, the country's top court has ordered that every case tied to the new court complex — and the land beneath it — must be heard by the High Court alone, and more specifically, by a single designated bench. No more jurisdictional merry-go-rounds. No more...
