Supreme Court Mandates Dignity in Airports

New Guidelines for Accessibility Take Center Stage

Sheikh Rayees • November 22, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Supreme Court has issued a pivotal directive to ensure airports across India uphold dignity and respect for passengers requiring assistance, particularly individuals with disabilities, the elderly, and those with injuries. The move follows a petition by Arushi Singh, who brought attention to the dehumanizing experience she faced at Kolkata Airport earlier this year. Singh, an accomplished legal scholar, recounted being left stranded without assistance for 20 minutes and...
