SUPREME COURT

Supreme Court Names Court-Appointed Administrator to Finally Settle Jaipur Udyog Workers' Decades-Old Dues

Sheikh Rayees • April 16, 2026

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a move aimed at ending a dispute that has stretched across generations, the Supreme Court has appointed former Madras High Court Chief Justice Manindra Mohan Shrivastava as Court Administrator to verify and oversee the payment of long-pending dues of thousands of employees of Jaipur Udyog Ltd. The exercise, which includes unpaid wages and provident fund claims, has been directed to conclude by August 31, 2026.
