

THE

LAWYERS' POST

BY THE COURT CAST PROJECT

SUPREME COURT

Supreme Court

Objections to CBI Probe Without State Consent Must Be Raised Early, Not After Trial Begins

Sheikh Rayees • October 14, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Supreme Court has drawn a clear boundary for challenging Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) inquiries lacking state approval under Section 6 of the Delhi Special Police Establishment Act, 1946 — such objections, it ruled, cannot be pulled out after the investigation has run its course.

Full report • lawyerspost.in

OPEN JUDGMENT PDF

FULL STORY

LAWYERSPOST.IN