Supreme Court Orders Direct Bank Transfers for Motor Accident Compensation

Sheikh Rayees • March 19, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a bid to streamline the disbursement of compensation in motor accident claims, the Supreme Court has directed High Courts and Tribunals to ensure that awarded amounts are directly transferred to claimants' bank accounts, eliminating procedural delays and inefficiencies. A bench comprising Justice JK Maheshwari and Justice Rajesh Bindal underscored the need for this reform, stating that claimants should submit their bank details at the outset of the claim...
