SUPREME COURT

Supreme Court Orders States to Act Special Educators Must Be Hired by March 28

Sheikh Rayees • March 11, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Supreme Court has issued a decisive directive to all states and union territories, mandating them to identify and officially sanction posts for special educators before March 28. Additionally, it has ordered the immediate commencement of the hiring process and the regularization of ad-hoc teachers based on merit. This ruling stems from a petition highlighting the severe shortage of specialized educators for children with special needs. Despite previous court orders,...
