SUPREME COURT

Supreme Court Overturns Conviction

Test Identification Parade Deemed Useless Without Witness Testimony

Sheikh Rayees • February 18, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Supreme Court recently overturned a conviction, emphasizing that a Test Identification Parade (TIP) loses its evidentiary value if the witness who identified the accused is not examined during the trial. The ruling highlighted a crucial legal principle: a TIP report can only serve as corroboration or contradiction if the witness who participated in the parade testifies in court. Without such testimony, the Court noted, it is impossible to determine...
