Supreme Court Overturns Karnataka HC Ruling on HMT Land Dispute in Bengaluru

Sheikh Rayees • September 26, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a decisive ruling, the Supreme Court has nullified a Karnataka High Court judgment that mandated HMT Ltd. and the Union of India to either return land in Jarakabande Kaval village or compensate the heirs of its original owner. The court's decision highlights significant delays and factual discrepancies in the case, dating back to the land's requisition in 1941. The legal saga began with a writ petition filed in 2006,...
