COURT OF RECORD

Supreme Court Overturns Madhya Pradesh HC's Decision, Upholds Shiksha Karmis' Appointments After 25 Years

Sheikh Rayees • January 31, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Supreme Court has put an end to a long-standing legal battle over the appointment of Shiksha Karmis in Madhya Pradesh, rejecting allegations of bias and overturning the High Court's decision that had canceled their selection. A three-judge bench ruled that the claims of undue influence were not substantiated, allowing the teachers to retain their positions after more than two decades of service. The case had reached the Supreme Court...
