Supreme Court Overturns Murder Conviction Due to Procedural Error

Sheikh Rayees • July 9, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a landmark decision, the Supreme Court recently overturned a murder conviction, citing critical procedural lapses in the trial process. The Court emphasized that failure to question the accused on incriminating circumstances, as mandated under Section 313 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, led to a miscarriage of justice. This ruling underscores the pivotal role of Section 313 in safeguarding the rights of the accused to present their defense effectively....
