Supreme Court Passes the Buck on Deepfake Crackdown, Sends Plea to Delhi High Court

Sheikh Rayees • May 17, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Supreme Court gave a swift nod to sidestep a Public Interest Litigation demanding urgent action against the flood of deepfake videos. The petitioner, pointing to the rampant circulation of manipulated clips featuring Colonel Sofiya Qureshi—known for her role in the Army's Operation Sindoor briefings—was told to take the matter to the Delhi High Court instead. Justices Surya Kant and NK Singh made it clear: the issue is already under...
