Supreme Court Pushes for Audit of Maharashtra Slum Act

A Call for Real-Time Governance

Sheikh Rayees • July 31, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a recent move, the Supreme Court of India underscored the importance of real-time assessment of laws, spotlighting the executive's duty to ensure statutes like the Maharashtra Slum Areas (Improvement, Clearance, and Redevelopment) Act, 1971, function as intended. The Court's directive emphasizes that ongoing evaluation and reform are crucial for effective governance. A bench of Justices PS Narasimha and Aravind Kumar highlighted that constitutional courts have the authority...
