Supreme Court Pushes for Inclusive Medical Admissions for Persons with Disabilities

Sheikh Rayees • November 6, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a landmark ruling, the Supreme Court has called for the National Medical Commission (NMC) to establish new guidelines aimed at ensuring persons with disabilities (PwDs) can pursue medical courses. The Court's decision reinforces the idea that individuals with disabilities are not objects of sympathy, but integral members of society deserving equal opportunities in all sectors, including healthcare. The judgment came after a candidate with muscular dystrophy was...
