Supreme Court Puts Vantara Wildlife Centre Under SIT Lens, Probes Animal Acquisitions and Compliance

Sheikh Rayees • August 26, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The country's highest court has called for an independent probe into the workings of Vantara—the vast zoological rescue and rehabilitation facility in Jamnagar, Gujarat, run under the Reliance Foundation banner. A Special Investigation Team (SIT), led by former Supreme Court judge Justice J. Chelameswar, has been tasked with digging deep into the centre's affairs, particularly the manner in which animals—especially elephants—have been acquired from India...
