Supreme Court Quashes Bihar's Mutation Rule

Calls It Arbitrary, Illegal, and Beyond Authority

Sheikh Rayees • November 8, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a powerful rebuke to bureaucratic overreach, the Supreme Court has struck down two controversial provisions of the Bihar Registration Rules, 2008 — sub-rules (xvii) and (xviii) of Rule 19 — that allowed registering authorities to deny registration of sale or gift deeds unless sellers produced proof of land mutation.
