Supreme Court Quashes Summoning Order, Emphasizes Need for Judicial Reasoning

Sheikh Rayees • January 31, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a significant ruling, the Supreme Court struck down a summoning order issued by a Judicial Magistrate against a pharmaceutical company, reaffirming that such orders must be backed by clear judicial reasoning. A bench comprising Justices BR Gavai and AG Masih ruled in favor of drug manufacturers challenging an Andhra Pradesh High Court decision that had upheld the summoning order against them. The case stemmed from allegations under the Drugs...
