Supreme Court Rebukes Kerala Over Withheld Munnar Files, Summons Officials

Sheikh Rayees • July 31, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Supreme Court has sternly criticized the Kerala government for withholding a crucial file from the Central Empowered Committee (CEC), a body established to oversee ecological compliance and recommend measures for judicial orders under the Environment Protection Act. The CEC's role, bolstered by a statutory status granted in September 2023, is integral to aiding the Court in environmental matters, specifically in the ongoing TN Godavarman Thirumulpad case...
