Supreme Court Rebukes Kerala Public Service Commission for Vacillating on LDC Qualifications

Sheikh Rayees • November 5, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Supreme Court delivered a scathing critique of the Kerala Public Service Commission (KPSC) over its erratic decision-making regarding the required qualifications for the Lower Division Clerk (LDC) position in the Kerala Water Authority. The Commission's inconsistent policies have left nearly twelve hundred candidates embroiled in uncertainty and prolonged legal battles. A bench of Justices PS Narasimha and Sanjay Kumar condemned the KPSC for initially asserting...
