Supreme Court Rebukes TN Over ADGP Suspension in Teen Abduction Case

“This Is Demoralising”

Sheikh Rayees • June 18, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a courtroom exchange crackling with disbelief, the Supreme Court on Wednesday tore into the Tamil Nadu government and the Madras High Court’s handling of a senior police officer’s suspension—calling the move “shocking” and “very demoralising.” The officer in question: Additional Director General of Police (ADGP) HM Jayaram. The trigger: a controversial abduction case tangled in caste tensions, political heat, and a botched arrest. A bench of Justices Ujjal...
