Supreme Court Reins in Judicial Overreach

Tamil Nadu's Formula 4 Race Stays Private

Sheikh Rayees • February 21, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a landmark ruling, the Supreme Court has overturned a Madras High Court directive that sought to alter the financial terms of a Formula 4 racing event in Chennai and transfer its organization to the Tamil Nadu government. The verdict underscores the importance of public-private partnerships (PPPs) in managing large-scale events, reaffirming that courts should exercise caution when interfering in state-private agreements. The case originated from a series of public...
