Supreme Court Rejects Claims Over 550 Acres In Miyapur, Rules Telangana Government Is Lawful Owner

Sheikh Rayees • October 31, 2026

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Supreme Court has firmly rejected competing ownership claims over more than 550 acres of land in Miyapur, Telangana, ruling that the property belongs to the State government and cannot be claimed on the strength of erstwhile jagirdari rights. A bench comprising Justice MM Sundresh and Justice Satish Chandra Sharma dismissed the appeals challenging a 2003 Andhra Pradesh High Court judgment, which had recognised the government's ownership of the...
