Supreme Court Rules Against Invalidating Statutes Based on Violation of Constitutional “Basic Structure”

Sheikh Rayees • November 6, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a landmark decision, the Supreme Court has clarified that the validity of a statute cannot be questioned solely on the grounds of a violation of the Constitution's "Basic Structure." The ruling came in the context of the Uttar Pradesh Board of Madarsa Education Act, 2004, which had been struck down by the Allahabad High Court for allegedly violating the secularism principle embedded in the Constitution. The bench, led by...
