Supreme Court Rules Foreign Judgments Unenforceable If They Clash With Indian Law

Sheikh Rayees • August 16, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a decisive ruling, the Supreme Court of India has affirmed that foreign judgments violating Indian law hold no binding power over Indian courts. The recent verdict, delivered by Justices Surya Kant and Ujjal Bhuyan, came in response to a challenge against a Gujarat High Court decision. This decision had previously dismissed a petition seeking the repatriation of a minor, based on a ruling from a Minnesota court. The court...
