Supreme Court Rules Out Use of Article 32 to Challenge Own Judgments, Upholds Judicial Finality

Sheikh Rayees • April 17, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a significant ruling on April 16, 2025, the Supreme Court held that Article 32 of the Constitution cannot be used as a tool to challenge its own previous judgments, emphasizing the necessity of judicial finality and the structured hierarchy of the legal system. The court stressed that permitting such writ petitions under Article 32 would erode the principle of res judicata and unleash a wave of endless litigation. The...
