Supreme Court Saves Medical Student's Degree, Hits Father with INR5 Lakh Penalty for Caste Certificate Fraud

Sheikh Rayees • August 31, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

A young doctor's career has been rescued by the country's top court, but her father has been made to pay the price. The Supreme Court has regularised the MBBS degree of a student whose admission was secured through a Scheduled Tribe certificate later declared invalid. The Court made it clear, however, that the father's deception would not go unpunished—ordering him to deposit INR5 lakh in the National Defence Fund. The...
