Supreme Court Scraps Defamation Case Against Journalists, Warns Media on Reckless Reporting

Sheikh Rayees • February 19, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Supreme Court has thrown out a defamation case against journalists from the Times of India, underscoring the vital role of responsible journalism while cautioning against the dangers of unchecked reporting. A bench comprising Justices JB Pardiwala and R Mahadevan highlighted the immense influence of the press, stressing that while media plays a crucial role in shaping public perception, irresponsible reporting can inflict lasting reputational damage. “The media...
