Supreme Court Set to Reassess PMLA Ruling

Review Petitions to be Heard in August

Sheikh Rayees • May 8, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Supreme Court has scheduled a crucial hearing for August 6 and 7 to review petitions challenging its landmark 2022 decision that upheld the validity of key provisions in the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA). The petitioners, led by Senior Advocate Kapil Sibal, are seeking a re-examination of the judgment in Vijay Madanlal Choudhary v. Union of India, arguing that aspects of the ruling require further scrutiny. During the...
