Supreme Court Shields Recruitment Process From Collapse Over Correctable Appointment Lapse

Sheikh Rayees • June 15, 2026

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Supreme Court has ruled that a procedural flaw occurring at the final stage of appointments cannot, by itself, wipe out an otherwise fair and transparent recruitment exercise. In a significant decision, the Court directed a cooperative society in Haryana to revisit the appointments of seven employees whose services had been terminated despite having worked for more than a decade. A Bench comprising Justice Sanjay Karol and Justice Nongmeikapam Kotiswar...
