Supreme Court Shuts Down Allegations of INR30 Crore Currency Exchange Scandal

Sheikh Rayees • January 13, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Supreme Court recently dismissed a petition claiming the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) exchanged defaced currency notes worth INR30 crores, allegedly marked by a Kashmiri separatist group in 2013. The Court noted the petitioner's failure to disclose critical details, including his dismissal from the RBI, as a major credibility issue. The case, initiated by Satish Bhardwaj, sought a Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) probe into the alleged currency scandal....
