Supreme Court Slams “Ad-hocism”

Orders Regularisation of Workers Exploited for Decades

Sheikh Rayees • August 20, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

For more than thirty years, five Class-IV employees and a driver kept the wheels of the U.P. Higher Education Services Commission turning. Hired between 1989 and 1992 as daily wagers, they were never granted the dignity of regular posts—only excuses of “financial constraints” and a state-wide freeze on new jobs. When the Allahabad High Court backed the State’s refusal to regularise them, the workers knocked on the doors of the...
