Supreme Court Slams BMW with INR50 Lakh Penalty for Defective Car

Sheikh Rayees • July 15, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

A luxury ride turns into a legal rollercoaster as the Supreme Court directs BMW India to cough up INR50 lakhs. The case revolves around a flawed BMW 7 series bought by GVR Infra Projects in September 2009. Despite multiple repairs at authorized workshops, the defect persisted, leading to a legal battle. The complainant's frustration peaked, prompting the registration of an FIR against BMW under Sections 418 and 420 of the...
