Supreme Court Slams High Court's 'Absurd' Bail Condition Requiring Victim to Act as Surety

Sheikh Rayees • July 3, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a sharp rebuke on Monday (July 1), the Supreme Court derided a baffling bail condition set by the Patna High Court, which mandated that the victim must act as the surety for the accused. This peculiar stipulation led to the accused languishing in jail for a year despite a bail order. The vacation bench, comprising Justices JB Pardiwala and Ujjal Bhuyan, expressed their dismay over this bizarre requirement, which...
