Supreme Court Slams Karnataka High Court for Ruling Without Hearing Lawyer in Cheque Bounce Case

Sheikh Rayees • February 18, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a recent ruling, the Supreme Court expressed strong disapproval of the Karnataka High Court's decision to dismiss a criminal revision petition in a cheque bounce case, without granting the convicted man's lawyer an opportunity to present his argument. The case highlights concerns over the procedural fairness in handling criminal appeals. The petitioner, convicted under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, had challenged the trial court's decision in...
