SUPREME COURT

Supreme Court Slams Kerala HC for Siding with Accused in School Harassment Case, Revives POCSO Trial

Sheikh Rayees • April 24, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The country's top court didn't hold back its dismay over what it called an "insensitive" decision by the Kerala High Court — one that shut down a serious sexual harassment case without letting the victims even testify. At the heart of the case is a computer teacher from a government-aided school, accused of harassing multiple female students. The students, many from minority communities, said the teacher's behavior in the computer...
