Supreme Court Slams Registry for Unauthorized Case Deletion

Sheikh Rayees • February 5, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a firm rebuke, the Supreme Court has ruled that the Registry has no authority to remove a case from the cause list without a direct order from the concerned bench or the Chief Justice of India. The decision came after the Court discovered that a case had been deleted from the list due to a procedural oversight—an act the judges deemed unwarranted. The case in question had been scheduled...
