SUPREME COURT

Supreme Court Slams States for Ignoring Jail Overcrowding Crisis

Sheikh Rayees • July 5, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a sharp rebuke, the Supreme Court castigated the States of Bihar, Jharkhand, and Kerala for their lack of action on prison overcrowding in its May 14 order. The highest court in the land has had enough. Fed up with the indifference of State governments and Union Territories toward fixing overcrowded prisons, the Supreme Court laid down the hammer [In Re: Inhuman Conditions in 1382 Prisons]. Justices Hima Kohli and...
