Supreme Court Slams Toll on Broken Roads

“Citizens Already Pay Taxes, Not for Potholes”

Sheikh Rayees • August 20, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The country's highest court has delivered a sharp rebuke to the National Highways Authority of India (NHAI), refusing to rescue it from a Kerala High Court order that temporarily halted toll collection at the Paliyekkara plaza in Thrissur. The reason? A highway riddled with potholes and choked with traffic, where citizens were paying a toll for misery instead of mobility. A Bench led by Chief Justice BR Gavai, with Justice...
