Supreme Court Stands Firm

Government Free to Scrap and Restart Tenders if Public Interest Demands It

Sheikh Rayees • April 26, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Supreme Court delivered a strong reminder today: when it comes to tenders, the government's hands are not tied — and courts must keep theirs off unless something smells truly foul. In a decisive ruling, a bench of Justices Bela M Trivedi and Prasanna B Varale overturned the Kerala High Court's interference in a cancelled tree-felling tender. The matter revolved around a 2020 e-tender floated by the Kerala Forest Department...
